Our Dear and Beloved Friends,

Greetings to you in the precious name of Him who specializes in the impossible! That greeting became the way I opened every letter I wrote during CIY days and for many years after. PTHWSITI became pretty popular to all who were acquainted with CIY in any way. And since then, it has withstood the movement of time, and today is still popular with many. And no wonder! God continues to specialize in what many believe to be impossible.

When David Pace first called me concerning Kairos' desire to fund some of the expenses involved in my wife Nell's medical expenses, I said something like "Wow! I can hardly believe that you would do that for us! I feel so unworthy of such a blessing!" I knew our expenses were becoming greater as Nell's needs grew and as her care required more and more attention..

David informed me of their goal of $15,000, and I thought that was quite optimistic. I simply waited to hear. And then David called. "Bob," he said, "our goal has been surpassed, and the amount is now at $45,000." What could I say? "Thanks" wouldn't be enough. Even my popular "Wow" seemed insufficient. In fact, I'm sure that whatever I said was inadequate. And to this day, I still cannot find the words to express all that is in my heart.

I've always preached and believed that God takes care of His children. Some of my favorite verses of Scripture have been Malachi 3:10, Matthew 6:33, Ephesians 3:20,21 and Philippians 4:19. I've preached them. I've believed them. I've seen them fulfilled in our lives and in the lives of others through the years. And here He is again making those Scriptures come to life in our lives in such a dramatic fashion. The words of that popular song of years ago come to mind, "How can I say thanks for the things You have done for me? Things so undeserved yet You came to prove Your love to me."

My heart is singing. My eyes are shedding tears. My tongue is shouting praises. My cup is overflowing. And yet I'll never be able to express to all of you what this great gift means to me. Thank you who gave! Thank our great and mighty God! Thank, Kairos and all of those who serve through this work that blesses so many.

I've always believed and preached Paul's promise to the Philippians: "And my God will meet all of your needs according to his glorious riches in Christ Jesus” (4:19). And I conclude this inadequate expression of our thanks with Paul’s words, also: “To our God and Father be glory forever and ever. Amen” (4:20).

In Gratitude and Love,

Bob & Nell
